Brother Knights,

First let me thank you for the honor of being elected Grand Knight of this Council, it is both a honor and a privilege.

I hope your summer went well and that you're looking forward to participating in anyone of a number of Council activities coming up this year.

Plans are well under way for our annual Christmas Tree Sale. Brother Don Morin with "divine guidance" from Brother Mike Dromgoole, have already ordered the trees for this year. The tree sale is our biggest fundraiser and requires a lot of man hours. Don and Mike will be putting out the sign up sheets soon and could use you to sign up for three slots if possible.

We had a successful "Old Home Days" we were busy all day. I want to thank PGK Jean Desrosiers and Andrew, Marc and Nick D'Anjou, Wally Markham, John McLaughlin, Pat Obrien and Steve Hogarty for assisting in setup/take down and manning the booth.

There are a number of projects and events coming up that will need volunteers, because they won't happen without your support.

Please consider stepping up and chairing or co-chairing an event.

Vivat Jesus

Marty Bove, GK

My apologies for failing to get the newsletter published, prior to this month's council meeting. Since the first of the month fell on a Thursday, the council meeting was a week earlier than anticipated. The notices went out a week later that they should have and the responses were delayed.

Attending a wedding for the first time, a little girl whispered to her mother, "why is the bride dressed in white?" "Because white is the color of happiness," her mother explained. "And today is the happiest day in her life." The child thought about this for a moment. "So why is the groom wearing black?"

Married couples, both 60 years old, were celebrating their 35th anniversary. During their party, a fairy appeared to congratulate them and grant them each one a wish. The wife wanted to travel around the world. The fairy waved her wand and poof -- the wife had tickets in her hand for a world cruise. Next, the fairy asked the husband what he wanted. He said, "I wish I had a wife 30 years younger than me." So the fairy picked up her wand and poof -- the husband was 90.

A new fraternal year is upon us. Congratulations to our newly elected grand knights and deputy grand knights, as well as all the other dedicated brother Knights who will serve in either an elected and appointed leadership position in the coming year. I'm sure you have a list of goals and objectives that you intend to accomplish during the coming year. You have my assurance that I'm eager to help.

One of these goals is surely the attainment of the Star Council award - the most prestigious award the Order offers at the council level. I'm certainly committed to helping on the insurance side, but I'll be glad to help on the membership side as well.

If you know an eligible Catholic man who might be interested in joining the Order (and who among us doesn't), he's probably just waiting to be asked. I can help you, either by approaching him myself, or by "coaching" you -- transferring sales skills that you can use to recruit him and other prospects. As always, I'm at your service.

Let's get an early start on attaining those goals and objectives that are so critical to the growth of your council."

A Swiss man, looking for directions, pulls up at a bus stop where two Americans are waiting. "Entschuldigung, koennen Sie Deutsch sprechen?" he asks. The two Americans just stare at him. "Excuse-moi, parlez vous Fracais?" he tries. The two continue to stare. "Parlare Italiano?" No response. "Hablau ustedes Espanol?" Still nothing. The Swiss guy drives off, extremely disgusted. The first American turns to the second and says, "Y' know, maybe we should learn a foreign language." "Why?" says the other. "That guy knew four languages, and it didn't do him any good."

A man is at work one day when he notices that his co-worker is wearing an earring. This man knows his co-worker to be a normally, conservative fellow, and is curious about his sudden change in "fashion sense." The man walks up to him and says, "I didn't know you were into earrings."

"Don't make a big deal, it's only an earring," he replies sheepishly. His friend falls silent for a few minutes, but then his curiosity prods him to say, "So, how long have you been wearing one?" "Ever since my wife found it in my truck."
